

First John 3:7-10

- 1) The command to be faithful to sound teaching—3:7 <sup>7</sup> Little children/born ones [τεκνίων], let no one [μηδείς] be leading you<sup>pl</sup> astray [pres. act. impv. πλανάω];—3:7a
  - a) Beware of teachers that minimize the sinfulness of sin, or who are always crying “Legalism!” when it comes to discussing sanctification. Righteousness and knowledge of Christ cannot be divorced. (Burdick)

- 2) The contrast of two opposing lifestyles—3:7b-8a
  - a) The presence of genuine salvation—the one characterized by practicing [pres. act. ptc. ποιέω] righteousness [δικαιοσύνη] is [pres. act. ind. εἰμί] righteous [δίκαιος],
    - i) What is the standard? just as [καθώς] That One [ἐκεῖνος] is [pres. act. ind. εἰμί] righteous [δίκαιος]. (Cf. 3:5; Romans 6:5-14)
  - b) The absence of genuine salvation—<sup>8</sup> The one practicing [pres. act. ptc. ποιέω] sin [ἁμαρτία] is [pres. act. ind. εἰμί] from [ἐκ] the devil [διάβολος]; (cf. John 8:44)
    - i) Why? because [ὅτι] from [ἀπό] the beginning [ἀρχή] the devil [διάβολος] is sinning [pres. act. ind. ἁμαρτάνω].
    - ii) Cf. Isaiah 14:13-14; Ezekiel 28:12-17

- 3) A purpose of the incarnation—3:8b (cf. 3:5)
  - a) For this reason [εἰς οὗτος] the Son of God was revealed [aor. pass. ind. φανερόω], in order that [ἵνα] He may destroy [aor. act. subj. λύω] the works [ἔργον] of the devil [διάβολος]. (cf. John 8:41; Hebrews 2:14)
    - i) This indicates the preexistence of the Son of God.

- 4) Two serious theological statements regarding the genuinely converted —3:9
  - a) The absence of habitual sin—<sup>9</sup> Each one [πᾶς] who has been fathered [pf. pass. ptc. γεννάω] of [ἐκ] God is not practicing [pres. act. ind. ποιέω] sin [ἁμαρτία],
    - i) Why? because [ὅτι] His seed [σπέρμα] is residing [pres. act. ind. μένω] in him,
    - ii) We cannot continue living contrary to His nature.
  - b) The inability to habitually sin—and he is not able [pres. dep. ind. δύναμαι] to be continually sinning [pres. act. inf. ἁμαρτάνω]
    - i) Why? because [ὅτι] he has been fathered [pf. pass. ind. γεννάω] of [ἐκ] God.
    - ii) Genuine Christians are not sinners, but rather saints who sin. (cf. 1:8-10; 2:1)

- 5) Our lifestyle makes our source obvious—3:10 <sup>10</sup> By this are evident/conspicuous [φανερός] the children [τέκνον] of God and the children [τέκνον] of the devil [διάβολος]:
  - a) Family trait # 1 is righteousness or unrighteousness—each one [πᾶς] who is not practicing [pres. act. ptc. ποιέω] righteousness [δικαιοσύνη] is [pres. act. ind. εἰμί] not of [ἐκ] God, (cf. 2:29)
  - b) Family trait # 2 is love or no love—and the one who is not loving [pres. act. ptc. ἀγαπάω] his brother.

- 6) One does not grow into Christianity; one enters it by being born from above by God.

- 7) You will live like your father; so, who is your father, the devil or God
